The journy begins

"Princess Apple, are you sure you want to do this?" asked a maid as Apple White changed her clothes behind a screen.

"You won't have any bodyguards out there to protect you," said another maid.

"Don't worry you two, I'll have Togepi with me," said Apple as she came out wearing a red leather jacket, gold shirt with a white apple on it, black knee length shorts, and tennashoos.

"My mother also agreed that this would be a great chance for me," said Apple as she picked up Togepi who had been sitting on her bed.

"Just be careful, the Evil Queen has control of Team Rocket now and will do anything to get a hold of you," said the first maid.

"I'll be careful," said Apple as she grabbed a backpack and baseball cap. She then headed out, and that evening had set up camp in the forest.

"Good thing we practiced camping before we left home," said Apple as she stirred the stew she had been making while Togepi sat next to her. Suddenly, the two were startled at a twig snapping from nearby

"Who… who's there?!" asked Apple as Togepi jumped bravely in front of her.

"I'm sorry, I didn't mean to scare you," said a girl as she walked out of the darkness and into the light of the fire.

"I had gotten lost when I noticed the light from your fire," said the girl as she brushed a lock of purple hair out of her face.

"Oh, are you a trainer too?" asked Apple.

"I am, I'm on my way to Bookend to challenge the Gym," said the girl.

"I'm heading that way too, if you want you can camp here and we can head out together in the morning," said Apple.

"That sounds great; um, I just realized that we haven't introduced ourselves," said the girl.

"My apologies, my name is Apple," said Apple as she held her hand out.

"Nice to meet you, Apple, my name's Raven," said the girl as they shook hands.

Truth revealed

The next morning, Apple and Raven had made their way to Bookend's Pokemon Gym.

"So, this is the Glass Gym," said Raven as they stood outside a large building.

"You're going to have some trouble against the Gym Leader, she's a friend of mine and a tough trainer," said Apple.

"I've already defeated four other Gyms," said Raven as she showed her four badges which were pinned to the inside of her jacket. Before another word could be said, someone came running out and talked-hugged Apple.

"It's good to see you too, Ashlynn," said Apple as she hugged the brunette.

"Sorry girl, just happy to see you get out of that stupid castle," said Ashlynn as she let the princess go.

"Castle?" asked Raven. This caused Apple's eyes to go wide.

"Oh, are you a new friend of Apple's, she's a stubben princess so please take care of her," said Ashlynn as she gave Raven a slight bow.

"She didn't know!" whispered a panicked Apple as she grabbed Ashlynn's arm.

"Um, how about we move this to one of the rooms inside?" asked Ashlynn. A few minutes later they were sitting inside a meeting room of the Gym.

"So, you're a princess?" asked Raven.

"My last name is White," said Apple as she avoided eye contact.

"What are the odds that I of all people would run into Princess Apple White?" asked Raven as she leaned back in her chair while hiding her face in her hands.

"What do you mean?" asked Ashlynn.

"I didn't tell her my last name either, which is Queen," said Raven without moving her hands.

"You mean Queen as in the Evil Queen?" asked a worried Apple.

"She's my mother, but I'm nothing like her, it's why I'm trying to make a name for myself by defeating the Gyms," said Raven as she removed her hands to reveal the series look in her eyes.

"Then let me see your Pokemon, I'll be able to tell if that's true then," said Apple.

"Just a warning, I use Ghost Type Pokemon so don't get scared," said Raven as she took out three Pokeballs.

Surprise

"Come on out everyone," said Raven as she tossed the Pokeballs into the air.

"They all look happy," said Ashlynn as they looked at a Gengar, Misdreavus, and Galarion Corsola.

"Sorry to suddenly ask you this, but Raven told me that she's nothing like her mother, is that true?" asked Apple as she knelt down to them. The three pokemon then started to talk over each other.

"Wait, can she really understand them, I thought it was just a rumor," said Raven to Ashlynn as Apple listened to the pokemon.

"She can, all members of the White family have the ability to talk with pokemon," said Ashlynn as she noticed Apple laughing at something Gengar had said.

"Well, what do they say?" asked Ashlynn.

"That she's absolutely nothing like her mother, Gengar even told me you once called her a fat Sparrow," said Apple as she tried not to laugh again. However, Ashlynn was not able to stop herself and broke out into laughter.

"S… sorry, but that… that's just too funny," said Ashlynn through her laughter.

"It's alright, and I'm going to say that if I could, I'd hand her over to the Officer Charmings," said Raven who was also not trying to laugh from the memory of that joke.

"Well, now that that's out of the way, how about that gym battle you came here for?" asked Apple.

"Oh, so you came here to challenge me, huh?" asked Ashlynn who had stopped laughing thanks to the change in topic.

"That's right, can we have one of them today?" asked Raven as she called the Pokemon back.

"Sure, let's move to the battlefield," said Ashlynn.

Ghost vs Ice

Out on the field, Raven and Ashlynn stood on opposite sides of the arena while Apple sat in the bleachers.

"This will be a three vs. three battle, is that alright?" asked the ref as she looked at Raven.

"Fine by me," said Raven.

"Then send out your pokemon!" said the ref. Raven sent out her Gengar while Ashlynn sent a Glaceon.

"Gengar, use Will-O-Wisp," said Raven.

"Glaceon, use Quick Attack to dodge then Bite!" said Ashlynn. Glaceon did as said and dodged the Will-O-Wisp and went in for the Bite, but it did nothing.

"Use Power-Up Punch while it's attached!" said Raven. Gengar then went on to punch Glaceon over and over.

"Each time that move hits it increases Gengar's attack stat, and Normal Type moves like Bite have no effect on a Ghost Type," thought Apple.

"Now use Fire Punch!" said Raven.

"It knows Fire Punch?!" asked a surprised Ashlynn as the move connected.

"Glaceon is unable to battle," said the ref as pokemon hit the ground.

"You did good," said Ashlynn as she recalled Glaceon. Raven had decided to switch Gengar out.

"Rest up, Gengar," said Raven. Next up, Ashlynn sent out a Beartic while Raven Misdreavus.

"Beartic, use Icicle Crash!" said Ashlynn.

"Misdreavus, use Sunny Day!" said Raven. The little Ghost Type managed to use it's move before getting hit.

"Misdreavus, can you still go?" asked Raven.

"Misdreavus," said the pokemon as it floated back up, a confidant expression on its face.

"Tough little thing," said Ashlynn with an excited expression.

"Misdreavus, use Will-O-Wisp," said Raven.

"It can use Will-O-Wisp too?!" asked Ashlynn.

The winner

"Beartic, use Dig!" said Ashlynn. Beartic managed to dodge the Will-O-Wisp by going underground.

"Misdreavus, use Shadow Ball while aimed at the ground!" said Raven.

"Trying to force Beartic out by destroying its hiding spot, impressive," thought Apple.

"Looks like we found you," said Raven as the last shot revealed Beartic who was now stuck in the rubble.

"Beartic, you have to get out of there!" said a worried Ashlynn.

"Finish it up with Will-O-Wisp!" said Raven. When the move hit, it caused a large dust cloud to cover the field.

"Beartic is unable to battle," said the ref as the smoke cleared to reveal an uncouncis Beartic who was still stuck in the rubble.

"Wow, Raven still has all three of her pokemon while Ashlynn is down to her last one," thought a stunned Apple.

"Sunny Day just ended and Misdreavus shouldn't be able to keep going for much longer," thought Ashlynn as she recalled Beartic. The little Ghost Type was also breathing heavily.

"It's all up to you, Sandslash!" said Ashlynn as she sent out an Alolan Sandslash.

"Misdreavus, hang in there just a little longer," said Raven.

"Lets get them before they get us, Sandslash," said Ashlynn before using her Z-Ring.

"Steel Type Z-Move, Corkscrew Crash, how will you deal with it, Raven?" thought Apple.

"Misdreavus, use Sunny Day!" said Raven.

"So that's why she kept it in," thought Ashlynn as the weather condition hit before the Z-Move.

"Misdreavus is unable to battle!" said the ref.

"Thanks for the help, Misdreavus, have a good rest," said Raven as she called the Pokemon back.

"Finish it, Gengar!" said Raven.

"Sandslash, use Icicle Spear!" said Ashlynn.

"Let your flaming spirit rain down from above and burn all to ashes!" said Raven as she activated her Z-Move.

"Inferno Overdrive!" said Raven.

"Wasn't expecting that," said Ashlynn as she watched the Z-Move land.

"Sandslash is unable to battle, the winner is the challenger, Raven Queen," said the ref.

"Way to go, Gengar!" said Raven as she hugged the Pokemon.

"What a combination, using Sunny Day to increase the strength of Inferno Overdrive," said Apple as she stood up.

Moving on

After winning her badge from Ashlynn, Raven and the other two were outside the Pokemon Center.

"So, what are you two planning to do now?" asked Ashlynn.

"I never thought of it, I just want to just travel and meet people and all kinds of Pokemon," said Apple.

"If you're alright with it, you can travel with me," said Raven with a smile as she moved a strand of hair out of her face.

"That sounds nice," said Apple as she smiled and a slight blush came to her cheeks.

"Hey, Apple, can I talk to you for a minute over there?" asked Ashlynn as she motioned to a table that was a little ways away.

"Sure thing," said Apple. The two then moved over to where Ashlynn had indicated.

"What's up, Ashlynn?" asked Apple.

"I'm just wondering, since you didn't tell her your last name, did you tell her that you're gay?" asked Ashlynn with a teasing smile.

"No, that never came up, and don't say anything to her," said Apple as the blush deepened.

"You have it bad for her, don't?" asked Ashlynn with a giggle as they headed back over to Raven.

"What's so funny?" asked Raven.

"Oh, Apple had forgotten that my boyfriend is the Gym Leader over in Sherwood Forest, his name is Hunter Huntsman, and now she's embarrassed that she forgot something so simple," said Ashlynn.

"I've done something similar, and we should head that way for the next Gym, we can even say hi for you," said Raven.

"That would be great, thank you," said Ashlynn. Apple and Raven then sat out to continue on their journey.

Abandoned

A couple of days into their journey to Sherwood Forest, Apple and Raven were just outside the main town.

"Hey, did you hear that?" asked Apple as she stopped walking.

"It sounds like it's coming from over here," said Raven as she heard the cry of a Pokemon in distress. When the two looked at the bushes, they found a Clefairy laying on it's side in bad shape.

"We have to get it to a Pokemon Center now," said Apple as she noticed all of the wounds on its body. She wasted no time in picking the small Pokemon up and ran into town. A few hours after finding the Clefairy, Raven and Apple were waiting in the lobby.

"I hope the little thing will be alright," said Apple.

"I'm sure it'll be fine," said Raven as she put her hand on Apple's shoulder to try and calm her.

"Thanks Raven," said Apple who was trying to avoid eye contact with her because of the deep blush that was on her face now.

"Apple, Raven," said Nurse Farrah Goodfairy as she walked up to them with a Chansey.

"Is the Clefairy going to be alright?" asked Apple.

"After a few days of rest it will be just fine," said Nurse Farrah.

"May I go talk to it?" asked Apple.

"That's fine with me," said Nuse Farrah. That evening, Apple and Raven were in one of the guest rooms, where Apple was furious.

"I can't believe it, Raven, the poor thing was abandoned by its last trainer, left to fend for itself with now moves to protect itself with!" said Apple as she paced back and forth.

"I'm mad too, Apple, I saw that all the time with those stupid Team Rocket idiots, if they caught a Pokemon stronger then one they had they would just dump them," said Raven.

"That's not right, all Pokemon have their good points, weak or strong," said Apple as her fists shook in anger. However, all of that anger left when Raven suddenly hugged her from behind.

"I love how much you care for Pokemon, but getting mad won't help," said Raven.

"You… you're right," said Apple as her face went redder than her namesake.

"We should get to sleep, long day ahead of us tomorrow," said Apple as she broke out of the hug and took the top bunk.

"Nice going, Raven, you just made things acquired with her," thought Raven as she went to turn the light off. Her face was just as red as Apple's had been.

Battle with Hunter

The next day, Raven's match with Hunter was underway.

"Simisage, use Solarbeam!" said Hunter.

"Corsola, dodge and use Disable!" said Raven.

"Her Corsola is fast," said Hunter as the little Pokemon dodged the Solabeam with ease.

"Corsola, use Rock Slide!" said Raven.

"That takes Hunter down to his last Pokemon," thought Apple as she watched Simisage faint.

"Raven's Misdreavus was taken out by Lurantis earlier, leaving Gengar and Corsola for Raven but they are both tired while Hunter's last Pokemon has not even been out yet," thought Apple.

"You're time to shine, Shiftry!" said Hunter as he sent out the Pokemon which was of a shiny color.

"Shiftry, use Air Cutter!" said Hunter.

"Corsola, use Harden and then Icy Wind!" said Raven. Corsola managed to harden itself right before Air Cutter hit, withstood the attack, and countered with Icy Wind.

"Smart move, Raven," thought Apple as she noticed Shiftry's feet were frozen to the ground.

"Use Leaf Tornado!" said Hunter.

"Corsola is unable to battle," said the ref as Corsola fainted from the attack after being blown backwards by it.

"You're up, Gengar!" said Raven.

"Shiftry, use Leaf Blade to break the ice on your feet!" said Hunter.

"Gengar, stop it with Hypnosis!" said Raven. Hypnosis hit before Leaf Blade, causing Shiftry to fall asleep.

"Oh no, Shiftry!" said a worried Hunter.

"Gengar, use Nightmare!" said Raven.

"Shiftry's going to take damage every few minutes now, but it'll still take time to beat him and he could wake up," thought Apple.

"Gengar, let's finish it up!" said Raven before using her Inferno Overdrive. A few minutes later, the three were at the entrance to the Gym.

"Just two more badges to go," said Raven as she placed the Sherwood Badge with the others.

"The closest Gym to here is Cerise Hood's over on Wood Island," said Hunter.

"I know Cerise actually, she uses the Double Battle System, specializing in Fighting Types," said Raven.

"Sounds like an easy win for you," said Apple.

"Ms. White!" said Nurse Farrah as she ran up.

"What's wrong?" asked Apple, who had a sinking feeling in her stomach about what it could be.

"It's Clefairy," said Nurse Farrah with a worried expression.

Will you join us

After hearing what Nurse Farrah had to say, Apple ran back to the Pokemon Center to see the Clefairy.

"Clefairy, it's me, Apple," said Apple as she walked into the Pokemon's room.

"Fairy, Clefairy," said Clefairy as it came out from behind a cabinet that it had been hiding behind.

"Why are you hiding from everyone?" asked Apple as she knelt down. The Pokemon then went on to tell her what was wrong.

"So, you woke up alone and was scared?" asked Apple.

"Clefairy," said the Pokemon with a sad expression as it sat in front of her, clearly still scared.

"Hey, I have an idea," said Apple before releasing Togepi from its pokeball.

"Togepi, wouldn't it be cool if Clefairy comes along with us on our journey?" asked Apple with a friendly smile..

"Toge?" asked Togepi as it looked at the princess.

"That's right, Togepi, but only if Clefairy wants to," said Apple.

"Fairy, Clefairy!" said Clefairy as it jumped up and hugged Apple while crying from joy.

"I don't know which of them is more adorable," thought Raven who had been listening in while standing out in the hall.

"By the way, I have another friend I'd like you to meet, her name's Raven," said Apple who knew she was there.

"Hi," said Raven as she walked into the room in a way as not to scare the little one.

"My name is Raven, and it's nice to know you'll be joining us," said Raven as she gave Clefairy her own friendly smile.

Pit stop

A week after Clefairy had joined them, Apple and Raven were training at a Pokemon Center in a port town at night.

"Clefairy, use Sweet Kiss!" said Apple as Clefairy fought with Misdreavus. The second the attack landed, Misdreavus was put under Confusion.

"Not good," said Raven as Misdreavus hurt itself.

"Finish it off with Disarming Voice!" said Apple. The second the attack hit, Misdreavus fainted.

"Alright, that was great you two," said Raven as she recalled Misdreavus.

"Get some rest, Clefairy," said Apple as she recalled it.

"Togepi, it's your turn next," said Apple as she looked at the small Fairy Type that was sitting next to her feet.

"Hang on, something is watching us," said Raven as she looked at the dark forest that was nearby

"Are you sure?" asked Apple as she looked at the same spot that Raven had been, but she couldn't see anything it was so dark.

"I like Ghost Types, I know when they are around," said Raven.

"Clops," said a Dusclops as it appeared before them at the tree line.

"A Dusclops," said a surprised Raven.

"What are you doing here?" asked Apple as she held Togepi. She wasn't afraid of Raven's team since they were trained Pokemon, but a wild Ghost Type was unpredictable.

"Dus, Dusclops," said Dusclops while pointing at Raven.

"He said that he can feel your love for Ghost Types and wishes to travel with you, Raven," said Apple with a stunned expression.

"Clops, Dus," said Dusclops as he moved closer.

"He also has something for you," said Apple. Once Dusclops was close enough, it held out its hand which had a Ghostium-Z in it.

"Well then, welcome to the team," said Raven as she took the Z-Crystal and put it into her bag. She then took out a pokeball, which Dusclops used to catch itself by tapping the button.

"Can't wait for my battle with Cerise now, she'll be so shocked," said Raven as she smiled at the ball.

Cerise vs Raven

After arriving on Wood Island, Raven and Apple wasted no time in getting to the Gym, which was set up like a dojo.

"About time you got to my Gym, Raven, I've been hearing all kinds of news about you," said Cerise as the two stood on the battlefield.

"Sorry that it took so long," said Raven.

"This will be a single round battle using the Double Battle System, the first to lose both Pokemon will be the loser, battle begin!" said the ref.

"Come out, Medicham and Lucario," said Cerise.

"Time to scare up some fun, Gangar and Dusclops!" said Raven.

"When did you get a Dusclops?" asked Cerise.

"Just the other day," said Raven.

"Dusclops, use Shadow Punch on Medicham!" said Raven.

"Ghost Type moves do double the damage to Psychic Types," thought Apple as the attack hit, sending Medichm stumbling backwards.

"Medicham, use Mind Reader then Psyshock on Gangar!" said Cerise.

"Lucario, you use Shadow Ball on Dusclops!" said Cerise.

"Dusclops, use Protect, Gangar use Fire Punch on Lucario when it's in close!" said Raven.

"No!" said Cerise as her attacks were stopped and Gangar landed a hit right to Lucario's chest, sending it flying backwards and landing on the ground hard.

"Lucario, can you get up?!" asked Cerise as Lucario laid on the ground.

"Lucario," said Lucario as it stood up.

"He cares for her a lot, must have been friends since they were children," thought Apple.

"Let's bring the scares up a notch, Dusclops," said Raven as she started her Z-Move.

"Not good," said Cerise as Dusclops used Never-Ending Nightmare.

"Medicham and Lucario are unable to battle, the winners are Gangar and Dusclops!" said the ref.

"You got me good, Ray, I never saw a Ghost Type Z-Move coming," said Cerise as she walked up to shake Raven's hand.

"I just had a good type match up is all," said Raven as she shook Cerise's hand.

"Hey, seeing how it's been so long since you left how about staying the night?" asked Cerise.

"Apple's cooking is good, but no one can beat your mom's," said Raven with a big smile.

Dinner

That night, Raven and Apple were eating dinner with Cerise and her parents in the attached home to the Gym.

"I'm so glad that you were able to stay for dinner, Raven," said Mr. Badwolf.

"Yeah, it's been a while since you left, so it feels just like the old days now," said Ramona.

"You used to live here?" asked a surprised Apple.

"When I ran away from home this is where I came, figured it was far enough and I had run into Cerise a few months before that so I knew she lived here," said Raven.

"Hey, anyone home?" asked a girl's voice as the main door opened.

"We're in the dining room, Cedar," said Cerise.

"Wait, are you two still dating?" asked Raven as she looked at the half wolf girl who sat across from her.

"Five years and still together," said Cedar as she walked into the room.

"Nice to see you again, Cedar," said Raven as she got up to hug her.

"You too, Ray, by the way, is this your girlfriend?" asked Cedar as she looked at Apple who nearly choked on her food from the question.

"No, she's just a friend that I'm traveling with," said a panicked Raven.

"Really, she's so you're type though, she actually reminds me of someone," said Cedar. Raven just ran off without a word, her face bright red.

"Raven!" said Apple as she chased after her.

"Cedar, Raven had not told her that she's gay yet," said Cerise.

"Oh no, I can't believe I just outed her like that," said Cedar who was feeling terrible about this.

"That girl with her is also Princess Apple White, that's why you knew her," said Red Riding Hood.

"I really put my wooden foot in my mouth this time," said Cedar as she slapped a hand to her face out of regret. Meanwhile, Raven and Apple had run outside to the backyard which was a zin garden.

"Raven," said Apple as Raven faced away from her.

"I'm sorry, Apple, I should have told you sooner, but I was afraid," said Raven who was still bright red and had her arms crossed before her chest nervously.

"You were afraid of me?" asked Apple who was hurt by this.

"Not you, but how you would react, I mean given who our mothers are and you're a princess," said Raven.

"Raven, if you had told me sooner I would have told you that I'm gay too," said Apple, surprising Raven.

The truth

"You're gay too, but I've never read about that in any of the magazines," said a stunned Raven.

"That's because I was hiding it, my family knows but I did not want the public to, not until I have a girlfriend at least," said Apple.

"You got anyone in mind?" asked Raven.

"There is the girl that I met my first night on my journey and who I just found out is also gay," said Apple.

"Truth be told, I've had a crush on you since I saw you on the front cover of Ever After Magazine, and I knew it was you the first night we met," said Raven with a slight giggle.

"Hope I lived up to your expectations," said Apple as she got closer.

"You did, and more so," said Raven before kissing her, which Apple happily returned. Meanwhile, at Team Rocket's hideout.

"Boss, have you seen this?!" asked a Grunt as he ran in with a magazine.

"What is it, I'm busy," said the Evil Queen as she looked over a planning table for an upcoming scheme.

"Your daughter is one Gym Badge away from having all eight," said the grunt.

"Why should I care for that disappointment of a daughter that left years ago?" asked the Evil Queen without looking away from the table.

"She's also traveling with Princess Apple White," said the Grunt as he placed the magazine in front of her face.

"Hm, maybe I should find her and drop in to say hello then," said the Evil Queen as she looked at the magazine, which had a picture of the two on the cover, with a wicked grin.

Surrounded

A month after the battle with Cerise, Raven and Apple were in the Dark Forest, heading for the last Gym.

"For a place called the Dark Forest, it's pretty nice here," said Apple as the two walked down the street.

"But there are some bad people around," said Raven as several Team Rocket Grunts came out.

"Well, I never thought you would befriend Apple White, Raven," said the Evil Queen as she came out of the crowd.

"She's more than a friend, mother," said Raven as she pushed Apple behind her, but kept a hold of one hand.

"Godmother, you're dating that little princess?" asked the Evil Queen with a disgusted voice.

"Why don't you and your thugs just get out of here and leave us alone?" asked Raven.

"I have a better idea, how about we have a battle?" asked the Evil Queen as she held up a pokeball.

"Wait, how many Pokemon do you have?" asked Apple.

"Six, why do you want to know?" asked the Evil Queen.

"Because Raven doesn't have a full team, but I do, so how about the two of us battle?" asked Apple.

"Apple, no, this is my battle not yours," said Raven.

"It became our battle when we started dating, Raven," said Apple before giving Raven a quick kiss.

"For a little princess you sure are brave," said the Evil Queen.

"Shut up and send out your Pokemon, because this little prince is going to wipe the floor with you," said Apple as she sent out Togepi.

"That little egg is about to break," said the Evil Queen before spending out a Liepard.

"Good luck, Apple," said Raven.

Fairy vs Dark

"Liepard, use Swift!" said the Evil Queen.

"Togepi, use Metronome!" said Apple. The move that came was Flamethrower.

"Liepard!" said the Evil Queen as her Pokemon took a direct hit, canceling out it's own attack in the process.

"Use Sweet Kiss!" said Apple. Togepi then ran up and kissed Liepard before it could recover.

"No way," said a grunt as Liepard became confused.

"Let me guess, your Togepi's ability is Super Luck," said the Evil Queen as she withdrew Liepard before it could hurt itself.

"You're smarter than I gave you credit," said Apple.

"Yeah, well let's see what your luck has on this," said the Evil Queen as she sent out her next Pokemon, which was a Tyranitar.

"Tyranitar, use Sandstorm!" said the Evil Queen.

"Togepi, Metronome once more!" said Apple. The move that came this time was U-Turn which after dealing damage subbed it out for a Mawile.

"Looks like you lucked out again, getting a Steel and Fairy Type like that," said the Evil Queen with an enraged expression.

"We still have a lot more in store," said Apple before having Mawhile use Iron Head.

"Tyranitar, use Fire Fang!" said the Evil Queen. When both moves collided, they gave off a large explosion.

"Mawile, let's take it to the Mega Level!" said Apple as Mawile Mega Evolved.

"Two can play that game," said the Evil Queen as she Mega Evolved her Pokemon.

"Tyranitar, use Rock Slide!" said the Evil Queen

"Dodge it, Mawile while getting in close," said Apple. The Pokemon did as commanded and got behind Tyranitar as it closed the distance, dodging the Rock Slide in the process.

"Use Seismic Toss!" said Apple.

"No!" said the Evil Queen as Mawile grabbed Tyranitar by the tail and threw him into the air.

"I don't believe it," said Raven as Tyranitar landed, falling unconscious upon hitting the ground.

"You actually beat two of her Pokemon," said Raven as everyone else looked on with stunned expressions.

"Hahaha, this is going to be better than I thought," said the Evil Queen with a wicked grin.

Take down

As the battle continued, each side lost Pokemon until they were down to one each.

"This is it, Obstagoon," said the Evil Queen.

"It's up to you, Gardevoir," said Apple.

"Obstagoon, start off with Obstruct!" said the Evil Queen.

"Gardevoir, Moonblast!" said Apple. Both Pokemon got hit at the same time with the other's move.

"Use Cross Chop!" said the Evil Queen as Obstagoon recovered from the previous attack.

"Let it in close, then use Dragining Kiss!" said Apple.

"Nice move," said Raven as Gardevoir caught Obstagoon's hands before using Draining Kiss.

"Use Hone Claw!" said the Evil Queen.

"Use Magical Leaf!" said Apple. The two Pokemon then released their attacks at point blank range.

"Let's finish this!" said the Evil Queen as Obstagoon jumped out of the smoke from the collisions of the attacks.

"Couldn't agree more!" said Apple. The two then realised a Z-Move each. The Evil Queen used Black Hole Eclipse while Apple used Twinkle Tackle.

"Whoa!" said everyone as the two moves met in a large explosion.

"I can't tell who won!" said one of the Grunts as the smoke filled the area.

"Hahaha, that was the best fight I've ever had," said the Evil Queen as the smoke cleared to reveal Obstagoon was unconscious and Gardevor was still standing.

"Too bad it ended with my defeat," said the Evil Queen. Suddenly, several officer Darling Charmings came out of nowhere.

"Members of Team Rocket, you are under arrest!" said an officer. Some of the Grunts tried to make a run for it, but the officers caught them.

"Guess you're going to prison too," said Apple as she looked at the Evil Queen.

"Not exactly," said the Evil Queen with a smile.

"Thank you for your cooperation, Ms. Queen," said an officer as she held out a hand to the Evil Queen.

"I never want to do undercover work again, and call me Grimhild," said the Evil Queen as she shook the officer's hand.

"Wait, you were what?!" asked a stunned Raven as she and Apple looked at her with wide eyes.

"It's a long story," said Grimhild with a friendly smile that freaked Raven out more than the evil grin that her mother was famous for.

Epilogue

A few weeks later, Apple was returning home with Raven by her side.

"You nervous?" asked Raven as they approached the main door to Queen Snow White's castle.

"A little, but I'm not going to let that stop me," said Apple as she grabbed Raven's hand. The two then walked into the castle where Queen Snow White was waiting for them.

"It feels good to have you home," said Queen Snow White as she hugged her daughter.

"Oh, where are my manners, welcome to my home, Raven, it's a pleasure to finally meet you," said Queen Snow White as she let go of Apple to curtsy to Raven before also hugging her.

"Snow, you're scaring the two of them," said Grimhild as she walked up.

"What are you doing here, mother?" asked Raven.

"I came to update Snow on my undercover job," said Grimhild.

"Only you can get away with calling me Snow by the way," said Grimhild.

"That's because we have been friends for so long," said Grimhild with a kind smile.

"You two were friends?!" asked Apple and Raven.

"The two of us used to be a team, going all over Ever After and even other regions to battle," said Grimhild.

"We'll tell you more over a cup of tea, and I'm happy that you found someone," said Queen Snow White to Apple.

"So am I," said Apple as she smiled at her girlfriend.

The End.
